Paper 1 Section B/B: Conflict and tension: the inter-war
years, 1918-1939

Sources Booklet

Source A for use in answering in Question 1

Sources B and C for use in answering Question 02

Source A

An American cartoon published in a major American newspaper in 1919, commenting on the Treaty of Versailles.

The title of the cartoon was 'All that is left is the Fifteenth Point'

Source B

A statement issued by the German government explaining the movement of troops into the Rhineland, March 1936.

German soldiers have today taken up positions in the Rhineland. This step has been made necessary to protect our borders. France herself has destroyed the Locarno agreement by signing a pact with the Soviet Union that is aimed against Germany. Germany desires nothing but peace, and we stand ready to sign fresh treaties to secure it.

Source C

A British cartoon published in The Evening Standard in July 1936 showing Hitler goose-stepping across the leaders of democracy.

Cartoon by David Low, Stepping Stones to Glory, originally published on 8 July 1936, reproduced by courtesy of dmg media licensing. © Copyright holder. Supplied by British Cartoon Archive, University of Kent.
